SUNDAY SEMINARS

Fellowship Hall A

Today - July 10 - "Faith Seeking Understanding, Redux"

Last fall, a group joined in the timeless theological quest that seeks to order both authentically as well as intelligibly our words about God, which they did by gathering together on Sunday mornings to read and discuss William Placher's A History of Christian Theology. By popular request, we have picked up where we left off. Rev. Bob Snell leads the discussion. Books are available.

BIBLE EXPERIENCE

Lounge

Join us as we begin our journey through the final book in the Bible, the Book of Revelation. Dr. McDonald will lead our discussion. This highly symbolic book, typical of apocalyptic writings, was composed as resistance literature to meet a crisis. First century Christians were facing ruthless persecution by the Roman authorities. This book admonishes them to stand firm in their faith, trusting in God's triumph over the forces of evil. All are welcome!

CROSSROADS

Our time together is spent offering mutual acceptance, support for one another's goals and encouragement for life's challenges. While each of us faces unique 'crossroads,' our class reminds us that we are not alone on this journey through life. We are here for one another and invite you to join us. We guarantee a full pot of coffee, lots of laughs, new friends, and a place to call home.

We won't have time to show the films, so you might want to view the movie ahead of time and then join us at 6:30 pm on Wednesday, right after the WOW meal.

OUTREACH PROJECT IN LINCOLN

We are offering a fun and interesting opportunity for you to participate in a research study at Westminster. Pearson Corporation, the nation's largest publishing company of assessment materials, is developing a new assessment instrument called the Bruininks Motor Ability Test (B-MAT). The B-MAT has been designed to provide a comprehensive assessment of the fine and gross motor abilities of adults. It will be useful in helping professionals determine an adult's capabilities for independent living as well as to help guide treatment and monitor progress. The purpose of this phase of the study is to collect national norms for the B-MAT with adults ages 40-105 from various demographic groups and settings. Your participation will be helpful in the final development of this test. The field examiner is a licensed psychologist from Lincoln. All information will be kept confidential and participation is completely voluntary. Approximately 60-75 minutes will be needed to complete the activities. You will be compensated monetarily by Pearson for your time. Please contact Karen Ellefsen, Ph.D. for more information at: teststudy.ke@gmail.com.

BOOK CORNER

Diana Wallis Taylor's Journey to the Well is biblical fiction that looks at the life of Marah, the Samaritan woman who met Jesus at the well, changing her life as well as that of the whole town. The author has done a great deal of research into the customs and culture of the times, and the settings and characters come to life as you read. Marah did not have many choices -- tradition and law dictated what it was like to be a woman during the first century. If you liked The Red Tent you will enjoy the story of Marah, the "woman at the well." It's with adult fiction in the library.
