

SECOND CENTURY MESSENGER

VOLUME 81, ISSUE 5

MAY 2011

“WHO DO YOU SAY?”

“Who do you say that I am?” That was Jesus’ question to his disciples. We are people raised in faith, and sometimes we are too quick and easy to slip into formulas that answer his question. We answer in terms of standard doctrine so we can by-pass the challenge and get on with our lives. So we say, “Jesus is Lord.” And then “What’s for lunch?”

Yet Jesus’ haunting question, “Who do you say that I am?” still challenges us. It is fascinating to see how different historic generations answer the question. In Reformation times, they said Jesus was the Light in the Darkness. His Light became the catalyst, breaking apart old schemes, and coalescing a new vision around which their lives could form.

In times of a growing hunger for knowledge and truth, they saw Jesus as Wisdom, “the true light that enlightens the world.” In times of endless war, Jesus is proclaimed as Prince of Peace, and leads the faithful into shaping society in the ways of peace. In the 20th Century, Jesus was the liberator. First liberation from tyranny, and then liberation from racism and sexism.

When Christians answer Jesus’ question well, the world changes. When we take his question seriously, Jesus leads us. His living Spirit speaks to us and empowers us to dream new dreams and live new lives. He leads us and gives us his energizing Spirit.

We are at the edge of a new time. Jesus’ question keeps haunting us. “Who do you say that I am?” Our beliefs need to intersect with the exploding sense of new knowledge in the physical sciences – from nano-technology to Hubble’s view of the cosmos. And we need, as Dirk Ficca put it, to find among the world religions harmony rather than unity, convergence over consensus, and trust even where we do not have agreement.

We need a new sense of the Light of the World, the Cosmic Christ, the Prince of Peace, and the Life of the World, to guide us. Prayer, study, service, dialogue, loving community, worship – when we look and listen for Jesus’ presence, we will see who he is. And feel the power of his Spirit. In this month of recognizing Confirmands and Graduates, listen to what they have to say – the Spirit may be speaking through them.

Yours in Christ,

Andrew McDonald
Pastor

ADULT EDUCATION

Sunday Seminars, 9:00 a.m.—Fellowship Hall A

GLEE ON A SUNDAY MORNING--Really? YES! If you're a "Glee" watcher (or simply curious about the fuss) join us May 1 to see what it's all about. This popular high school drama/musical is quite the television phenomenon and takes on contemporary issues without much hesitation. One recurring theme in the series is that of being an "outsider." Our one-day intergenerational Sunday seminar on "Glee" will offer a lively look at some past episodes and how the "outsider" theme has biblical echoes. All ages are welcome! Don't miss this session on May 1. (You can catch an episode or two on Fox, Tuesday nights at 7 pm or on Fox television's website). Tom Pappas will facilitate.

FAITH SEEKING UNDERSTANDING, REDUX—Last Fall, a hearty group of faithful souls joined in the timeless theological quest that seeks to order both authentically as well as intelligibly our words about God, which they did by gathering together on Sunday mornings to read and discuss William Placher's eminently readable, A History of Christian Theology. We began but did not finish. So by popular request we are going to pick up where we left off starting May 8—July 10). Participation the first time around is not a prerequisite for participation the second time around; all are welcome. Bob Snell leads our discussion and additional books will be available at our first session.

ENGLISHING THE BIBLE —2011 marks the 400th anniversary of the publication of the King James Bible. Oxford University Professor of Historical Theology, Alister McGrath is among those who hail it and the works of Shakespeare as "the two greatest influences on the shaping of the English language," inspiring poets, dramatists, artists and politicians. The King James "Authorized Version," however, represents only one milestone in the story of "Englishing the Bible," the focus of our adult education seminar in August. Plan on joining us in August as Ernie Hines takes us through the fascinating history as well as the cultural and theological movements that led to the King James Bible.

CROSSROADS

We are here for one another, no matter what the situation, and invite you to join us. We guarantee a full pot of coffee, lots of laughs, new friends and a place to call home.

FAITH AT THE MOVIES —

Join with friends on Wednesday nights in May as Bob Snell leads us in discussion of four movies that raise interesting questions about the nature of faith and hope. We'll start May 4 with a focus on "The Spitfire Grill," and move in subsequent weeks through discussions of "Dogma," "The Legend of Bagger Vance" and "Places in the Heart" (in that order). We won't have time to show the films (obviously) on Wednesday nights—so you might want to plan some movie nights over the course of the next month or so. Consider inviting some friends over to view the movie and/or inviting them to join you at WOW, immediately following the meal on Wednesdays

UP-DATE ON THE CAPITAL CAMPAIGN: THANK YOU!

We have double good news on the Capital Campaign. First of all, our initial 1.5 million dollar debt is now down to under $175,000. And because so many people have paid their pledge early, we will save $5,000 in interest this year. This is wonderful news. Thanks to everyone who has been able to pay early on this pledge. We will keep you informed about further good news!

MULTI-GENERATIONAL FAMILIES OF WESTMINSTER

Why does the lady next to you in the pew look similar to the lady three pews up? Hum, could they be related? Westminster is blessed with many related families that worship together. In our congregation, we have Moms, Dads, Brothers, Sisters, adult Sons and Daughters and then all their kids. Member Care Ministries would like to know who the multigenerational families are in our congregation. If you are part of such a family, please let us know by giving us your lineage.

Send information to the church office or e-mail to Susie Hughes at skh@eskay.com. Don't delay, as the information is needed by May 9th in time to share with everyone on Heritage Sunday.

With spring upon us, we are welcoming all of the changes happening around us. We have beautiful flowers budding and blooming all around our playground and in our classrooms, many of our children are preparing for the big change of going to kindergarten. And with the warmer weather we have been able to spend more time outside.

This year we have 50 children graduating from our program. We are celebrating their growth by hosting a graduation ceremony on Sunday May 22 at 2:00 here at Westminster.

We will begin our summer session on May 31. There are still openings so if your family or someone you know is still looking for a summer preschool, please give me a call.

I am very excited to have had the opportunity to assist Southeast Community College in their evaluation of their Early Childhood Education Program.

On April 26, I was one of a panel of 5 professionals in the field of Early Childhood to spend the day discussing early childhood education and the courses offered at SCC. We took a look at the duties and tasks teachers need to perform in the classroom. This process assists SCC in their curriculum development for students.

Westminster Preschool is one of the leading sites for practicum students in classroom experience as well as administration working towards a degree in Child Development or Early Childhood Education.

ANNUAL BOOK SALE

The grass is green, the flowers are blooming, the birds are singing -- Spring must be here at last! That means it's also Spring cleaning time! When you're cleaning out those closets and shelves and under the bed, remember the Westminster library and the annual Book Sale coming up in August. Books, DVD's, videos, cassettes -- bring 'em all in!

THANKS!

We want to thank all of you who contributed to Westminster's food drive. The monetary gifts and food items are needed so badly and are appreciated. Last year we received approximately 1710 food items. This year we received approximately 1498.

Please continue to remember Westminster's Food Pantry throughout the year. The donation box is always at the top of the east stairway. Your continued support is very much appreciated. The need just keeps increasing.

Thanks again.
Hank and Nora Hinrichs

WATCH FOR UPCOMING ROAD CONSTRUCTION

SHERIDAN BLVD. will be under construction starting Monday, May 9th. The city is replacing the curbs, grinding off the surface and resurfacing Sheridan from South Street to Calvert Street.
