

THE MESSENGER

VOLUME 83, ISSUE 11 NOVEMBER 2013

THERE IS SOMETHING SPECIAL ABOUT THANKSGIVING. Maybe it is the food. What is not to love about turkey, sweet potatoes, mashed potatoes and pumpkin pie? Maybe it is the tradition —traditions that shape our families as we gather together over the years. Maybe Thanksgiving is special from the sense of history that the day gives us —where we imaginatively commune with the Pilgrims and the Indians. Remembering that it was the Native Americans who supplied most of the food that first Thanksgiving! All of these different dimensions of Thanksgiving touch us.

Most of all, Thanksgiving is a time when we give thanks to God. Providence is the doctrine we talk about —that God provides. This is a ritual of abundance. And we are grateful beyond the food, for the overflowing abundance of love which God gives us.

Gratitude is a uniquely human characteristic. We know to say thank you to the Source of all good. It is a significant part of what makes human life human. Without a thank you, we edge closer to the beasts. Our gratitude is a virtue that we need to practice in order to orient ourselves to the world around us.

I am grateful to God for this wonderful congregation—for the countless acts of kindness, grace, generosity, faithfulness, sacrifice, laughter and love. I love how there is a spirit of caring among this people of God. We have the great gift of being able to share life and faith together. For that we are grateful to God.

I hope you are able to join us for the Congregational Thanksgiving Dinner this year. It will be on November 7. We will gather at 5:30 p.m. for fellowship, and our traditional Thanksgiving feast begins at 6:00. There will be music from the choir and a celebration of highlights from the past year. And yes, the children get their own feast so they can celebrate in their own special ways. There will be a free will offering, as we want everyone who wishes to join us to be able to do so. This is a celebration of God's love —and we hope to see you there. Call the office to make reservations.

I hope this season reminds us all of God's providential love —and our many reasons to give thanks.

God bless you and Happy Thanksgiving!

Andrew McDonald, Senior Pastor

A note from the Westminster Foundation:

The Westminster Legacy Society was created by the Westminster Foundation in 2003. The purpose of this visionary group is to add to the endowment of the Westminster Foundation to enhance future programming of the church and increase church-wide missions and ministries.

You can become a member of the Legacy Society through a Planned Gift to the Westminster Presbyterian Church Foundation. Planned Gifts can be made in many ways, allowing you to tailor your giving goals with financial and estate plans. These gifts not only help the church, but can be structured in a way that allows you and your family to enjoy financial benefits during your lifetime.

If you would like more information about including the Westminster Foundation in your estate planning, contact Cheryl Rennick at 402-475-6702 or cheryl@westminsterlincoln.org.
