NOVEMBER CREATION CHALLENGE TIP:

Put your feet up and enjoy a good read!

Take advantage of Westminster's library to expand your understanding and appreciation of creation. One good choice: A Climate for Change: Global Warming Facts for Faith-Based Decisions by Katherine Hayhoe and Andrew Farley. Two evangelical Christians, a pastor and his climate scientist wife, summarize the science and present a thoughtful Christian response. Straightforward answers to complex questions, without the spin. Stop by the library display in the Garden Room.
