ADULT EDUCATION:

Sunday Bible Class: Parlor at 10:45am Sundays

Our lectionary study during the month of July will be scriptures from Luke’s Gospel beginning with the mission of the seventy and concluding with a call to prayer. The class meets in the Parlor following worship at 10:45 to explore the passage and discuss the pastor’s sermon as it impacts our lives. Join the group regular or simply drop in any Sunday. Of course, there’s always donuts and coffee.

July 7: Luke 10: 1-11, 16-20

Sunday Adult Education Forum: Lounge at 10:40am Sundays

In Christian circles the term meditation is used frequently but for some of us, the practice is a mere mystery. The Adult Ed Forum offers Meditation & Contemplation: A Gift to the Christian Spiritual Life

Join us for this four week series on contemplative practices and how they enrich the Christian Spiritual Life. We will spend most of our time learning and practicing. Adam Luedtke and Patty Forsberg from Contemplate Lincoln will lead this four week study.

Ponder . . . Congregation Earth Care

Do you ever hear people in the community talk about your church? “Oh, that’s the church that . . .” There are people in Lincoln who think of Westminster as a place that practices good stewardship of the environment. What does that mean to you?

Book: A Prayer for Owen Meany by John Irving; facilitator Marissa Kemp Irving believed the first sentence of the novel captured the essence of the entire book: "I am doomed to remember a boy with a wrecked voice—not because of his voice, or because he was the smallest person I ever knew, or even because he was the instrument of my mother's death, but because he is the reason I believe in God; I am a Christian because of Owen Meany."

Knit & Sit—Church Library

“Faith is a Journey - When we're lost in a dark wood and we need to find our way home, prayer is as good a path as we're likely to find.”

No matter where you are in your journey, this group is where cancer survivors can come together for fellowship, prayer and study. This Life Group meets at the same time every third Tuesday of each month.
