HERITAGE SUNDAY | March 24 | Worship 9:30 AM

March 24, Heritage Sunday is an opportunity to celebrate our Scottish heritage as Presbyterians. Please bring a token of your family history, whatever symbolizes your heritage will be welcome (cloth, cup, book etc.) to be blessed as we celebrate the importance of being connected to our roots from Scotland.

Pastor Jimmy Shelbourn will preach and play the bagpipes. There will be a congregational meal to follow of bangers and mash prepared by our own Chefs Fred and Susan Zander. Everyone is welcome and this is a great opportunity to bring a friend to worship and a meal and fellowship together. Let us gather as a congregation full of gratitude for what God is doing among us and through us as we move into a new tomorrow.

MARCH CREATION CHALLENGE

Sometimes we're so occupied with life's "terrible dailyness" that we don't much notice all the beauty around us. This month's Creation Challenge encourages us to appreciate and enjoy what God has created and to respond by creating something ourselves - a sketch, a few words of description, a photo. We'll be making a big scrapbook of everyone's observations on the Garden Room bulletin board starting Sunday, March 31st.

EASTER BOOKS IN THE GARDEN ROOM

Easter: a pictorial Pilgrimage takes you on a journey using beautiful photographs in black and white and in color. Many of the icons and interiors of the Easter story have never been photographed professionally, some kept in chambers accessible only by special permission. Capture the true meaning of Easter as you travel through the pages of this fascinating book.
