HERITAGE SUNDAY | March 24 | 9:00 | Garden Room

Fellowship Time

Bring some Scottish shortbread to share with others during the coffee time.

Worship 9:30 AM

March 24, Heritage Sunday is an opportunity to celebrate our Scottish heritage as Presbyterians. Please bring a token of your family history, whatever symbolizes your heritage will be welcome (cloth, cup, book etc.) to be blessed as we celebrate the importance of being connected to our roots from Scotland.

Pastor Jimmy Shelbourn will preach and play the bagpipes. There will be a congregational meal to follow of bangers and mash. Everyone is welcome and this is a great opportunity to bring a friend to worship and a meal and fellowship together. Let us gather as a congregation full of gratitude for what God is doing among us and through us as we move into a new tomorrow.

MARCH CREATION CHALLENGE

A proven strategy for reducing stress is to pause now and then and become intentionally aware of our surroundings. Whether broad as a sky spangled with stars or tiny as the markings on a chickadee, the gifts of creation can lift us above our circumstances. Can you pause long enough to capture one of those gifts with a picture or some words? Starting Sunday March 31st, we'll use the Garden Room bulletin board to share the wonder with one another.

EASTER BOOKS IN THE GARDEN ROOM

Like Christmas, Easter is a season filled with symbols, traditions and special celebrations. "Lilies, Rabbits and Painted Eggs" tells the stories behind Easter symbols from many countries. Readers of all ages will enjoy the descriptions of customs, special foods, stories and traditions old and new.

PRAIRIE READERS | Wednesday, MARCH 20

1 PM | PARLOR

BOOK SELECTION:

"Pachinko" by Min Jin Lee

Facilitator: Barbara Schliesser

"Pachinko" is a marvelous, deeply engrossing novel about four generations of a Korean family in Japan. There is a lot of story here and a lot of history rendered in an impeccable prose with a touch of steeliness.

We warmly welcome you to come to knit, crochet, do other hand work, or just sit and enjoy the fellowship. We can also help you learn to knit and we have some supplies to share. We meet year round, just come when you can.
