MARCH CREATION CHALLENGE

If you were to take a mini-vacation right here and now...what would your travel journal say about your own backyard? What pictures would you take to send to a friend? This month's Creation Challenge is to capture a bit of creation with a photo, a poem, a sketch, a few descriptive sentences - and then share it with your Westminster friends on the Garden Room bulletin board starting next Sunday.

EASTER BOOKS IN THE GARDEN ROOM

Paper sculptures and pencil drawings help tell the Easter story in the picture book entitled "Three Easter Journeys". The first journey was joyous as Jesus rode the donkey to Jerusalem. The second was sad as the two Mary's traveled to the tomb. The third journey began with a long wait as Peter and others waited for the risen Jesus to join them in Galilee. A picture book for families to enjoy together.

KNIT & SIT WEDNESDAYS | CHURCH LIBRARY | 6:30 PM

We warmly welcome you to come to knit, crochet, do other hand work, or just sit and enjoy the fellowship. We can also help you learn to knit and we have some supplies to share. We meet year round, just come when you can.

COMMUNION COORDINATOR

Are you an elder or deacon looking for a "once a month" opportunity to serve at Westminster? The congregation is in need of a person who is willing to be present on Communion Sunday to gather and direct servers. It would be helpful if you have been a communion server in the past.

No monthly meeting to attend, no reports to write. We'll walk you through the process until you are comfortable to lead on your own.

If you have questions or feel called to serve in this important role, please contact Diana Wild at diana.wild@hotmail.com or 402-440-0699.
