OGHS gifts are helping Black Women's Blueprint, a survivor-led ministry, in addressing issues of trauma. Client-members support one another in working to end gender-based violence, and to heal the places where its impact is seen. This ministry also provides food and housing assistance, and addresses the critical and unmet needs for women and survivors of violence.

Thirteen-year-old Trinity White Plume lives on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation in South Dakota where there is only one grocery store. Thanks to gifts from OGHS and partner organization Owe Aku, new garden projects put people in charge of their own food supply, nutrition, health and well-being. Trinity has learned to plant and tend the gardens, which include medicinal and ceremonial plants, and helps teach others to increase food security in their community.

BECAUSE WE ARE THE CHURCH, TOGETHER.

As Jesus says in Matthew 25, the Church belongs with those in need — with those suffering from natural and human-caused disasters; with those lacking access to food, water and healthcare; and with those struggling for justice, righteousness, and peace. Through our gifts to One Great Hour of Sharing, we are there because we are the Church, together.

Received during the season of Lent, each gift to One Great Hour of Sharing helps improve the lives of the suffering and the vulnerable through three life-saving programs ~
