✦ PEACE AT ALL TIMES, IN ALL WAYS

The Peace & Global Witness Offering helps people process violence and crisis-related trauma through creative expression in places like Lebanon, Southwestern Asia and North Africa.

The Pacific Presbytery Immigration and Refugee Task Force and the Presbyterian Peacemaking Program sponsored a travel study seminar to Los Angeles and Tijuana to witness the impact of migration and immigration law north and south of the border — one of many such trips they sponsor to share more about efforts for peace, justice and reconciliation in places of conflict, injustice and oppression.

First Presbyterian Church of Boonton, N.J., uses its portion of the Peace & Global Witness Offering to support mental health and suicide prevention programs in their community.

Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)
Presbyterian Mission

The Peace & Global Witness Offering is one of four annual special offerings. The church-wide Special Offerings of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) play an important role in defining what it means to be a connectional church in the twenty-first century, bringing together the diversity of the PC (USA) to focus and take faith-based action on shared concerns. The Offerings offer opportunities for partnership, learning, and witness and profoundly affect the life of the church as a collective witness to Jesus Christ's love for the whole church.
