

Good Friday

April 15, 2022

Southern Heights and Westminster Presbyterian Churches

Gathering Prelude

Opening Sentences (1 Peter 2:24)

Christ Jesus bore our sins in his body on the cross so that we might die to sin and live for righteousness.

Blessed is the name of the Lord.

Prayer of the Day

Hymn #220

Go to Dark Gethsemane

Word

Prayer for Illumination

Scripture

First Reading Isaiah 52:13–53:12

Gospel

See other document for community reading.

Hymn #221

O Sacred Head, Now Wounded

The Solemn Intercession

During the solemn intercession, prayers for the whole world and family of God are said. After the reader says, “let us pray for,” and a subject of the silent prayer, you are invited to pray silently for that area of life or the world.

*For example, the first prayer is, “Let us pray for the church throughout the world.”
Silent prayer.*

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Special Music

“Father, Forgive” by Lee Dengler
Linda Chavez, soprano; Sanda Mašić, alto;
Jonah Bricker, tenor; Ronnie Zanella, baritone

Solemn Reproaches of the Cross

The solemn reproaches of the cross are a time to reflect on the significance of God's acts of reconciliation. We will begin with a responsive section with the refrain, "Come, let us worship God." The 11 reproaches that follow are separated by the sung Kyrie, which may be found in the Glory to God Hymnal, #576.

This is the cross
that held the Savior of the world.

Come, let us worship God.

This is the cross
that held the Savior of the world.

Come, let us worship God.

This is the cross
that held the Savior of the world.

Come, let us worship God.

Hymn #228

Were You There

All depart in silence.

The service continues with the Easter Vigil, or on Easter Day.
